

Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) Response & Precautions

Toowoomba Hospice has adopted a highly preventative COVID-19 safe plan.

Prevention, control, and management of COVID-19 is based on the latest and best medical advice.

Toowoomba Hospice has infection control and hygiene management systems in place..

Our Coronavirus Response Team is receiving daily updates from public health officials.

Please be assured that we remain committed to our long-standing service to the community and to clients in need and, where possible, we will continue to operate all essential services.

For further inquiries, please contact Toowoomba Hospice on 07 46598500 or info@toowoombahospice.org.au.

Visitor rules

To protect our clients, their families and staff, Toowoomba Hospice has implemented a range of infection control procedures and restrictions across our services to minimise the spread of COVID-19.

We ask that you do not enter The Toowoomba Hospice site if you:

1. are suffering from flu-like symptoms or are unwell,
2. have been in contact with a case of COVID-19 (coronavirus),
3. have been overseas in the past two weeks (you are required to be in self-isolation)
4. have been in a COVID-19 hot spot in the past 14 days

Reminders

- Please always maintain social distancing (1.5 metres)
- On entering and exiting the Hospice facility, as well as during your stay, you will be required to use hand sanitiser.
- Visiting hours: please contact the Hospice Nursing Team to make an enquiry.
- Visiting hours are dependent on current Queensland Health Covid-19 Directives as well as the wishes of the client and their family.
- Visits must take place in the client's room or garden.
- Visitors will be required to sign-in using a QR code and or/ complete a health questionnaire upon arrival and have their temperature checked.
- Friendly staff will assist with this for those who do not have a device to sign in.

We also encourage family and friends to make phone calls, Skype and FaceTime (mobile video) to stay in touch with clients or you can send a message online to info@toowoombahospice.org.au.

Thank you!

To all our wonderful essential staff, families and customers for your work, your support and kindness in these challenging times.
